Programming Pathshala

Web Development Assignment

Programming Pathshala is a social enterprise, helping student to ace their coding skills and concepts of computer science, aimed at top tech Jobs. Students through website of Programming Pathshala subscribe to a course, called Renaissance, which is ideally a 6 month long course and promises to prepare for their Tech Interviews.

Assignment:

- Create a Hire from us Page, using the given Figma design: https://www.figma.com/file/fDaGu2itNvkriZdSAZDyE8/PPA-Intern-Task?node-id=1%3A9

- "Stories" carousel should ensure that the middle story is enlarged than the stories on the side, the carousel should continuously move with time.

- Submitting the form at the end of the page, should call a backend API called postCompanyQuery whose responsibility is to post the query into database.

- Expose an API called getCompanyQueries that gets all these queries from the database.

- Requirements:
  - Use React.JS for creating the frontend page.
  - You can use any backend technology(Preferably Node.JS)
  - Use SQL Based database like MySQL/ Postgres.

For any questions, please write to info@programmingpathshala.com

Programming Pathshala

A Brilliant Learning Experience awaits you here!